ADMIRAL DROPPED RETIRED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—Rear Admiral Daniel B. Barry, commander of the Pacific fleet, against whom charges affecting his moral character have been made, was today placed on the retired list at half pay.

The action was taken after a hurried consultation by Secretary Meyer with other high naval department officials. As President Taft and Secretary Meyer wish to avoid any further publicity of the scandal involving the Rear Admiral, there probably will be no court-martial. Rear Admiral Barry has been placed in command of the Pacific fleet.

Last Tuesday night, James Sherwood A. Taffin, officer of the deck at the time, discovered that an apparatus for hoisting the crew was attached to the admiral's quarters.

Charles Taffin, commander of the battleship USS Oregon, Lieutenant Commander H. J. Ziegler, assistant officer of the ship, and a crew member, Victor H. Barry, who is chief of staff under Admiral Barry, and they entered the admiral's cabin together.

Resignation demanded.

The admiral was told by his senior naval officers that nothing short of his immediate resignation would save the honor of the navy.

Barry is said to have resigned for many years and has been the subject of a formal official report was drafted in which the director of the admiral was written. The report was addressed to the Secretary of the Navy and Captain Thomas, who is in the admiral's desk with the request that it be forwarded to Washington by the next mail. The admiral Barry quashed the report.

Learning that the officers of the West Virginia have sent a copy of the report to the Secretary of the Navy at Washington.

We expect that Captain Thomas will recommend to the Secretary of the Navy that the West Virginia be placed out of commission and that the crew be sent home without further delay. The admiral Barry is said to have been in the crew when the admiral's resignation was demanded.

Admiral Barry was interviewed in his cabin on the battleship West Virginia, and declared that he had asked to be retired honorably in order to prevent the publication of a story which, he believed, would do great harm to the navy.

It is not true that he has been ordered to retire, the admiral said, "other men have been sent for immediate retirement."

SO FAR SO GOOD

THE DECATUR TRUCK

Left New York Sunday noon—loaded—bound for Boston. It has already passed through Bridgeport and is on its way to New Haven. Watch the papers for reports of progress.

This unusual test, never before attempted, has caught the interest of every business man. A successful performance of this New York to Boston trip will demonstrate two things. First, that the motor-truck has passed the experimental stage and can be relied upon for practical, commercial service. And second, that the Decatur Truck has shown an unrivaled capacity to stand punishment.

At your earliest convenience, we want an opportunity to explain to you in detail why we selected the Decatur from the field and why we trust it so implicitly.

Plan to be on hand at our salesroom, Wednesday afternoon when the truck arrives. Judge for yourself its power and durability, to have stood up under such an extreme test.

Advice to the Lovelorn

Kindly help me with your good advice.

...ected to the marriage of her son to

DEAR MISS FAIRBANKS.

I am a young girl of thirteen years of age, and my friend is twenty-two years of age. I have known the young man two years, and he has been his life for me too, with it I think he meant. Now he travels a great deal by his business and he often offends me most about my mother and he is very angry with him. As I had to leave home unprepared, I was very much distressed and answered in due time. But he began to be so unkind to me that I was not to be angry, but he thought I was. I was very much distressed and I wrote and explained all and asked him to be kinder to me. He said I am his sweetheart; as I don't think I am his sweetheart. Can you kindly give me any advice?

Yours truly,
J. M.

NO. You probably did nothing wrong. Do not fret on that score. There is nothing in it. I am sure you will follow his suggestion. I wish I could help you. All I can do is give you my sympathy. I am sure you will find the pain will not be so great.

BISHOP WILLIAMS SCORES TRUST AND THE VICIOUS RICH

There are two places to find rottenness and vice—the slums of a great city and the villas of Newport.

When a rich man goes through the country distributing turkeys, libraries and colleges, the people are apt to look at him with admiration and ask, where did you get it?

—Bishop Charles Williams of Michigan, at Ford Hall.

TODAY'S STOCK MARKETS; FINANCIAL NEWS

STATE ST. NEWS WALL STREET FOR INVESTORS TRADING DULL

What the banks are more interested in than anything else is the market for the early trading of the opening today, the market here became dull and irregular and as a result early gains in many instances were wiped out and fractional losses substituted.

The railway stocks developed early strength but later shaded off slightly. Canadian Pacific dropped 1/4, New York Central declined almost 1/2, and Lehigh Valley which opened at 170, fell back to 172 1/2.

Reading, Pennsylvania, Southern Pacific, Great Northern and St. Paul developed symptoms of early strength but later became irregular and inactive. Street news, up to the time of the opening, was not very encouraging. The market was shaded off fractionally, but the price of the early trading was quiet with no material change in prices.
